 how can we get this price moving up beyond a dollar without us having to do it?

 Also I have been trying to get ahold of John Bryan and take possession of the coins that he has in his trading account

 Yes, it is at $0.40 and what I am hearing for my Hong Kong Associates was because of the Arbitrage issue

 OK, but how do we fix this? how can we get this moving? A price under $2 is killing my ability to raise money for us. It was far easier with hitbtc being a prospect where the coin would rise, but now that it's on there and falling, I won't be able to convince anyone to participate. we have to find a way to get this moving. what's going on with the PRs?

 We need some more BTC to bring the price up
